

234 WBC 50 sp.

Walton District, Roane County, W. Va.
 By Carter Oil Co.
 Elevation, 760' B.
 Completed Nov. 19, 1908.
 Located on Big Creek, $\frac{3}{4}$ mi. N. W. of Walton.
 Record published on p. 392 of W-M-C Report.
 Dry hole. 10" casing, 372'; 8", 940'; 6", 1823'.
 Record published on p. 392 of W-M-C Report.

	Thickness.	Total.
Unrecorded	930 -	930
Sand, Cow Run
Sand, Cow Run? (Burning Springs)	40 -	970
Unrecorded	130 -	1150
Sand, Cow Run (Second Cow Run)	95 -	1245
Unrecorded	175 -	1420
Salt Sand
Salt Sand	100 -	1520
Unrecorded	15 -	1535
Salt Sand (water, 1605 and 1625')	203 -	1738
Unrecorded	2 -	1740
Maxton Sand	50 -	1790
Unrecorded	33 -	1823
Big Mine (little gas, 1908')	124 -	1947
Big Injun Sand (little gas, 1951'; water, 2000 and 2020')	108 -	2055
Unrecorded	285 -	2340
Berea Sand	70 -	2410
Unrecorded	92 -	2502
Total depth		2452

"The well starts about 140 feet below the Washington Coal, or 330 feet above the Pittsburgh bed. As would be expected, the log shows water at two different horizons in the Big Injun Sand. The water probably occupies the 'oil pay' horizon of the Walton field to the southeast."